

PAULINA GALLELLI

VP OF TALENT ACQUISITION AND OPERATIONS

Paulina Gallelli currently serves as Vice President of Talent Acquisition and Operations at Emerge, a role she has held since March 2022. She leads strategy and execution for global talent delivery, workforce operations, and organizational effectiveness. Her work directly supports Fortune 500 clients and high-growth companies by delivering tailored staffing solutions and ensuring operational compliance and excellence.

Paulina has been with Emerge for over 11 years, previously holding leadership roles including Senior Director of Global Talent and Operations and Director of Client Talent and Operations. She has played a critical role in scaling Emerge's workforce solutions and managed services models, building lasting partnerships across industries and expanding the firm's operational capabilities nationwide.

Before joining Emerge, Paulina held leadership roles at TalentBridge , AKEYA Associates , and Nesco Resource , where she directed national accounts, managed recruiting operations, and delivered large-scale staffing for high-profile professional sporting events. Her career spans 20+ years of experience in HR strategy, operations, compliance, and vendor management.

Based in Rochester, New York, Paulina is a Certified Staffing Professional (CSP) with deep expertise in workforce strategy, contract negotiation, and cross-functional team leadership.
