

ELIZABETH JONES

ACCOUNT EXECUTIVE

Elizabeth Jones is an Account Executive at Emerge, where she focuses on sales management, new business development, and building long-term client partnerships. Since joining the company in February 2024, she has combined her recruiting expertise with sales strategy to deliver staffing solutions that drive organizational growth.

With over seven years of recruiting and account management experience, Elizabeth has developed a strong passion for helping job seekers find the right career and employers connect with top talent. She has led full-cycle recruitment processes, managed high-volume hiring needs, and strengthened recruitment functionality through resume review, candidate screenings, and strategic placement. Her work has spanned industries including automotive manufacturing, professional services, and technical staffing.

Before Emerge, Elizabeth served as a Technical Recruiter at MS Companies (2023–2025), where she managed recruitment pipelines, performance metrics, and hiring processes across North America. She also worked as a Professional Recruiter at LanceSoft, Inc. (2022–2023), proactively sourcing and recruiting diverse candidates for business-critical roles, and as a Human Resources Recruiter at Honda Manufacturing of Alabama (2018–2020), where she oversaw internal job postings, full-cycle recruiting, and talent mobility programs.

Based in Birmingham, Alabama, Elizabeth is recognized for her results-driven and people-first approach. Dedicated to integrity, collaboration, and measurable impact, she continues to strengthen client relationships and drive success through innovative staffing solutions.
